A LITERARY ODDITY.

The Brewers should to Malta go,
The Quakers to the Friendly Isles,
The Quakers to the Friendly Isles,
The Quakers to the Friendly Isles.

The little, snarling, carolling "babes,"
Should be packed off to Baby-land,
To Baby-land or to Breast.

From Spit-head Cooks go o'er to Greece,
And while the Miser waits,
His passage to the Guinea coast,
Spendthrifts are on the Straits.

Spinners should to the Needle go,
Wine bibbers to Burgundy,
Guernseys should to Sandwich Isles,
Wags to the Bay of Fundy.

Bachelors to the United States,
Males to the Isle of Man;
Let Gardeners go to Botany Bay,
And Shoeblocks to Japan.

Those emigrate—and misplaced men
Will here no longer vex us;
And if no other aid is provided
Had better go to Texas.

SIGNS AND OMENS.—We heard a story the other day which pleased us "much," and here it is:

"Vell, don't dinks mooch of dem dings, und I don't believe averydings; but I dolls you sometimes dere is some dings as dose dings."

Now de oder night I sits and reads mine newspaper, and mine frau she speak and say: "Fritz, de dog ish howlin'."

Vell, I don't dinks mooch of dem dings, und I goes on and reads mine paper, und frau she says:

"Fritz, dere somedings pad ish happen—de dog ish howlin'."

And den I gits oop mit mineself, and looks out troo de vines on the porch, und de moon vas shinin', and mine leedle dog he shoomp right up and down like averydings, and he park at de moon dat vas shinin' so pright as never vas. Und as I hauled my het in de windo de old woman she says:

"Mind, Fritz, I tell you dere some dings pad ish happen. De dog ish howlin'."

Vell, I goes to pet und I shleeps, und all night long von I vakes up dere vas dat dog howlin' outside, und ven I dream, I hear dat howlin' vortzer as never. Und in de mornin' I kit oop und kits my prekast, and mine frau she look at me and say ferry sole inn:

"Fritz, dere is somedings pad ish happen. De dog vas howlin' all night."

Und shoest den de newspaper comes in, und I opens him—und by shings I vat you dinks! dere was a man died in Philadelphia!

While a Dutchman was passing through a city in Vermont, a Yankee came up to him and said: "Shon, if you will treat me to a cigar, I will show you a trick." Shon agreed. Yank then placed his hand against a fence, and told him to strike it as hard as he could. Shon not thinking any harm could befall him by doing so, struck a blacksmith's blow, but instead of hitting Yank's hand, the latter jerking it away, poor Shon struck the fence-board, knocking it off. "Mein Gott in Him-mil!" cried Shon, "what makes you so foolish? I knock my hand off up to the elbow! O socker-er Blitz! my poor frau, what will she say?" Poor Shon was bound to have revenge; so one day as he was passing through a field, he espied a man. Going up to him, he said: "Mynheer, I show you a little joke for nodding." As there was no fence or tree near, Shon put his hand against his mouth, and said: "Strike just so hard as you can." My-nheer struck and Shon pulled his hand away and received the blow on the mouth and was knocked down. Shon jumped up, his mouth bleeding and commenced dancing with pain. "Scherasalem! A tousand tuyvels take this country. I goes back to Holland on the first train."

Elder Haynes, an old Baptist preacher, once met two reckless young men who had agreed together to try his wit—one of whom said, "Father Haynes, have you heard the news?" "No," said Haynes, "what is it?" "It's great news indeed," said the other, "and if it is true, your business is done." "What is it?" again inquired Haynes. "Why," said the first, "the devil is dead." In a moment the old man replied, (lifting up both hands and placing them on the heads of the young men,) in "a tone of solemn concern, 'Oh poor fatherless children, what will become of you?'"

Pat was one day helping Mr. B—— to get a safe into his office, and not being acquainted with the article, he inquired what it was for.

"To prevent papers and other articles which are placed in it from being burned in case of fire," replied Mr. B——.

"An sure, will nothing iver burn that is put in that thing?"

"No."

"Well, thin, yer honor, ye'd better be after getting into the same when ye die."

"Bob Brown, did you say that my father had not as much sense as Billy Smith's little yellow dog?" "No! I never said any such thing. I never said that your father had not as much sense as Billy Smith's little yellow dog. All I said was that Billy's little, yellow dog had more sense than your father; that's all I ever said."

"Well, it's well you didn't say the other, I tell you."

A young man in New Haven, Connecticut, rushed into a drug store and in great alarm asked the clerk if benzine was poisonous.

"No," said the clerk; "why?"

"Because," said the fellow, "father went to the closet to take down the gin bottle, and by mistake took several swallows before he knew it."

"He is all right," replied the clerk; "the only difference between benzine and modern gin is the smell."

LOSS OF MEMORY.—An orator, who had raised his audience to a great height by his lofty soundings, exclaimed: I will now close in the beautiful and expressive language of the poet—

I forgot his name—and—and—I forgot what he said, too.

A Great and Good Medicine.

HEINTSH'S QUEEN'S DELIGHT,

THE NEW THEORY OF HEALTH.

The Life of all Flesh is Blood—The Health of all Life is Purity of Flesh—Without Purity of Blood no Flesh can be free from Disease.

HEINTSH'S QUEEN'S DELIGHT,

An Antidote to Disease.

The Great American Alternative and Blood Purifier.

It is the most perfect Vegetable Compound of Alkalies and Tonics making it the most effective, invigorating, rejuvenating and blood-cleansing Cordial known to the world.

For the Cure of all those Diseases which may be traced to a vitiated condition of the Blood.

The Theory is that Blood is the Life of all Flesh, and if impure, the Life of all Disease. Life and Health is only to be maintained by the circulation of pure arterial blood.

It is obvious therefore, to every reflecting mind, that unless the blood is pure, in supplying the various tissues with material it must be the cause of innumerable ills and constitutional disorders, such as Scrofula, Rheumatism, Hepatic Disorders, Inflammations, Fevers, Liver Complaint, Consumption, King's Evil, Carbuncles, Boils, Itching Humors of the Skin, Erysipelas, Ekin Diseases, Tetor, Roughness of the Skin, Impiles, Blotches, Pain in the Bones, old Ulcers, Syphilis and Syphilitic Sores, Indigestion, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Pains in the Back, General Debility, and for all complaints arising from deficiency and poverty of blood.

HEINTSH'S QUEEN'S DELIGHT is the wonder of Modern Science. No medicine has attained such a World-wide reputation as this justly celebrated Compound. Its extraordinary healing powers are attested to by thousands, and every mail is freighted with letters bearing testimony to the excellent character and worth as a medicine. Orders are coming in from all quarters, and all bear unmistakable evidence of its great popularity.

READ THE TESTIMONIALS.

"Mr. E. Heintsh—DEAR SIR: I have been afflicted for many years with an eruption of the skin, of the nature of Erysipelas, and have tried a number of preparations without relief. My health, much impaired in consequence of this disease, and having heard so much about the virtues of your preparation of 'Queen's Delight,' I was induced to try it. My expectations are more than realized; I find it a complete success. I give this testimony freely, that others may be benefited.

"Yours respectfully, Mrs. H. F."

Read this remarkable case of Liver Complaint, cured by one bottle of 'Queen's Delight':

"Mr. E. H. Heintsh—DEAR SIR: Mrs. Rials was suffering with Liver Complaint and pains in the side and heart, nervousness, could not sleep, bad appetite and general bad health. I prepared one bottle of your 'Queen's Delight.' I regard her case as cured. She is looking as well as she ever did. Your 'Queen's Delight' is a blessing to the afflicted. I give this certificate cheerfully.

"Yours respectfully, J. D. RIALS."

I have been suffering with Weakness, Languor, Want of Activity, Fatigue of Limbs, Drowsiness, Sleeplessness, Nervousness and General Prostration. I have taken one bottle of the 'Queen's Delight,' and I am rejoiced to say that I am a new man and am about my business as well as ever. Yours truly, H. I. FAENER."

"Dr. E. H. Heintsh: I take great pleasure in testifying to the remarkable medicinal powers of your valuable medicine, the 'Queen's Delight.' I have used three bottles in my family, and I owe the restoration of my wife's health entirely to its use. I am now trying it for a daughter, a child six years of age, will report the result. Your medicine is worth a place in every household.

"Yours, &c. Rev. A. K. DURHAM."
